

11th Political Science Lesson 7 Questions in English

7] Political Thought

1. Which among the following city in Greece, Plato was born?
 - a) Serres
 - b) Tripoli
 - c) Corinth
 - d) Athens
2. Plato was a disciple of which philosopher of Greece?
 - a) Homer
 - b) Socrates
 - c) Aristotle
 - d) Pythagoras
3. Who among the following founded his 'Academy' in 387CE?
 - a) Socrates
 - b) Plato
 - c) Aristotle
 - d) Pythagoras
4. Which among the following is not the work of Plato?
 - a) The Organon
 - b) The Republic
 - c) The Statesman
 - d) The Laws
5. Which among the following statement is incorrect?
 - 1) Plato designs an education system based on various stages suited to the age of the students from childhood to adulthood. He also devised methods of eliminations.
 - 2) Plato's idea of a constitution is much different from the modern understanding of this term. By constitution he meant a particular way of life the people of a society have designed for their wellbeing.
 - 3) According to Plato in an Ideal State should be made up of two classes namely Ruling Class and Economic Class. He gives details of how this is possible in his subsequent ideas of Justice and Education.
6. Which among the following statement is correct?
 - a) Only 2
 - b) Only 3
 - c) Both 2 and 3
 - d) Both 1 and 2
7. In which work of Plato, he practically condemned Democracy?
 - a) The Statesman
 - b) The Laws
 - c) Apology
 - d) The Republic
8. Which among the following statement is correct regarding Plato's concept of Education?
 - 1) Plato also devices methods of eliminations as higher stages of education is reached by human beings depending on the proportion of the three parts of their souls namely reason, spirit and appetite
 - 2) Plato said these qualities are Reason, which resides in a person's head, Spirit which resides in a person's heart and Appetite which resides in a person's stomach. He said these are the three parts of the human soul.
 - 3) Firstly, he said true justice is that, these three parts should do their rightful business in order to make a human being whole. Secondly, these three parts existing in every individual, should be faithfully reflected in the State

2) Persons who are found suited to fulfil economic duties of the State are separated from the ones suited for Ruling and Military services.

3) In the second process of elimination the persons suited for ruling are given special training to become what Plato calls 'Philosopher Kings' to rule his 'Ideal State'.

- a) Both 1 and 2
- b) Both 1 and 3
- c) Both 2 and 3
- d) All 1, 2 and 3

9. Plato classified the Constitution as how many types?

- a) Two
- b) Four
- c) Five
- d) Six

10. Which is a question and answer type of method where the student has a vague idea about something and throws questions to the teacher about it and the teacher's answers are again questioned?

- a) Dialectics
- b) Pragmatics
- c) Statistics
- d) Didactics

11. According to Plato, who were national possession and as such it was obligatory on the part of the State to bring them up according to their attitudes?

- a) Teachers
- b) Women
- c) Military
- d) Children

12. In which Book of Plato, he is asking questions as a student and Socrates is answering as his teacher?

- a) The Apology
- b) The Statesman
- c) The Republic
- d) The Laws

13. Who among the following was the student of Plato at his 'Academy'?

- a) Aristotle
- b) Pythagoras
- c) Homer
- d) Heraclitus

14. What was the school started by Aristotle after the death of Plato?

- a) The Epicurus
- b) The Lucretius
- c) The Lyceum
- d) The Citium

15. Which among the following statement is correct?

1) Aristotle' whose name means 'the best purpose' stood true to his name when he proposed the 'Best Practicable State' as opposed to Plato's 'Ideal State'. According to Aristotle, "the State exists for an end and this end is the supreme good of man in both moral and intellectual life"

2) Aristotle wrote many books on subjects ranging from Greek literature to Zoology. Like Plato's agreement with his teacher Socrates, Aristotle agrees on many things his teacher Plato had to say.

- a) Only 1
- b) Only 2
- c) Both 1 and 2
- d) None

16. Who among the following was the student of Aristotle studied in The Lyceum?

- a) Alexander
- b) Xerxes I
- c) Spartacus
- d) Achilles

17. Who agreed with Pythagoras that Mathematics were essential in understanding the world?

- a) Aristotle
- b) Homer
- c) Socrates
- d) Plato

18. Which among the following statement is incorrect?

1) According to him authority of the State is moral and the State is natural. Since the family could not satisfy the ever-increasing needs of the people, they had to come out of their limited circle and thought of creating the State

2) The families combined together to make the State and made it a perfect association. Aristotle believes that the State is a group writ large because the group can think of perfection only in a State.

- a) Only 1
- b) Only 2
- c) Both 1 and 2
- d) None

19. Which among the following statement is incorrect?

1) According to Aristotle the foremost function of the State is to promote good life and create essential conditions for mental, moral and physical development of the people.

2) The State should also function in such a way that good habits of individuals are converted into good actions and promote good, happy and honourable life.

- a) Only 1
- b) Only 2
- c) Both 1 and 2
- d) None

20. According to Aristotle, who is the first of the animate property of a Master?

- a) Student
- b) Slave
- c) Priest
- d) Soldier

21. Which among the following statement is correct?

1) Aristotle did not believe that mere residence or enjoyment of legal rights or birth should confer the right of citizenship on a person. A citizen should be able to partake in decision making process of the government.

2) He said, "It is the function which entitles a person to become citizen". A person should participate in the popular assembly which was vested with the authority of exercising sovereign power.

3) The slave is not instrument of action but that of production. As soon as he starts performing productive functions, he promotes his character as a slave and become soldier.

- a) Both 1 and 2
- b) Both 1 and 3
- c) Both 2 and 3
- d) All 1, 2 and 3

22. According to Aristotle which is the natural institution and in fact it existed prior to the State?

- a) Temple
- b) School
- c) Military
- d) Family

23. Which among the following statement is correct?

1) The reason Aristotle says the citizens of a State must have property as well as slaves is because the citizens must have leisure, so that the citizen may spend useful time in thinking and deliberating on furthering the good life of all though the State.

2) Aristotle did not support the possession of private property which is unessential for good and normal life. However, he prescribed limits to private property. He also objected to the abolition of state property.

3) Aristotle is of the opinion that revolutions occur firstly due to constitutional changes. For e.g.: change from Monarchy to Tyranny could set off a revolution by the people. Secondly, he says revolutions could occur due to loss of purpose of the State though there may not be any change in the State's constitution.

- a) Only 3
- b) Both 1 and 2
- c) Both 1 and 3
- d) Both 2 and 3

24. According to Aristotle, if sovereignty resides in one person it is ____

- a) Aristocracy
- b) Monarchy
- c) Oligarchy
- d) Polity

25. When polity is degenerates it becomes what?

- a) Democracy
- b) Oligarchy
- c) Dictatorship
- d) Despotism

26. In Western Europe which Century was regarded as the golden age of western medieval philosophy?

- a) Eighth century
- b) Thirteenth century
- c) Sixteenth century
- d) Tenth century

27. Who among the following was the father of political science?

- a) Socrates
- b) Aristotle
- c) Plato
- d) Homer

28. In thirteenth century sharp difference arouse between Aristotle secular view and whose religious view?

- a) Augustine
- b) Ambrose
- c) Plotinus
- d) Boethius

29. Who among the following philosopher was born in the family castle of Roccasecca, north of Naples?

- a) Augustine of Hippo
- b) Thomas Aquinas
- c) Plotinus
- d) Niccolo Machiavelli

30. Which among the following statement is incorrect?

1) In thirteenth century, some philosophers faced the challenge of how to accommodate the theological views and a set of secular political assumptions, which finally resulted in the reconciliation of two different ways of understanding the world.

2) They finally succeeded by terming politics and political theorizing as a trivial pursuit vis-à-vis people's higher calling of getting right with God. St. Thomas Aquinas was the greatest among these Christian theologians who architected this major philosophical triumph.

- a) Only 1
- b) Only 2
- c) Both 1 and 2
- d) None

31. In nineteenth century, which pope declared that the philosophical system which Aquinas founded to be official Catholic theology?

- a) Pope Benedict XVI
- b) Pope John XXIII
- c) Pope Gregory VIII
- d) Pope Luis XIII

32. Which among the following is not the work of Thomas Aquinas?

- a) The Sentences
- b) Summa Theologica
- c) Summa Contra Gentiles
- d) On Kingship

33. Which book of Aquinas is often said as a manual or text book designed to be used by the Dominican missionaries working in Spain where Islam was then a force to be reckoned with by Christians?

- a) Summa Theologica
- b) Summa Contra Gentiles
- c) On Kingship
- d) Policraticus

34. In his Summa Theologica, Aquinas establishes the existence of how many levels of law?

- a) Two
- b) Four
- c) Six
- d) Nine

35. Which among the following statement is correct according to Aquinas?

1) The highest and most comprehensive among the law is divine law which is a special category of eternal law which is the revealed word of God in the Scripture.

2) The Next (Second) is eternal law which is reason that is operative in the universe as a whole. It is the natural and the ethical order which God had established.

3) The next (Third) level of law, Aquinas identifies as the natural law. The idea of natural law goes back to the stoics and refers to moral law that is discovered by reason alone.

- a) Only 3
- b) Both 1 and 2
- c) Both 1 and 3
- d) Both 2 and 3

36. Which among the following statement is incorrect?

1) Fourth level of Law is human law. It is the application of human reason to the precepts of natural law in specific earthly conditions.

2) The Summa Theologica is evidently an apologetic work, since it defends a series of Christian beliefs that were under criticisms or that could come under potential criticisms.

- a) Only 1
- b) Only 2
- c) Both 1 and 2
- d) None

37. Which Aquinas' theory of law establishes a link between the natural and the supernatural – between nature and spirit?

- a) Eternal Law
- b) Divine Law
- c) Natural Law
- d) Human Law

38. Aquinas largely follows the pattern of arguments that were adopted by whom in his 'Politics'?

- a) Socrates
- b) Augustin

c) Plato

d) Aristotle

39. Which among the following statement is correct?

1) Aristotle argues that the State is natural because it is natural for man... to be a social and political animal, and to live in a group. Consequently, he emphasizes that political activity is necessary and good.

2) Aquinas further like Aristotle, roots people's political nature in their capacity to reason and to speak. Subsequently he emphasizes that it is through reasoned action in the political sphere that humans achieve virtue and there for happiness and fulfilment.

3) Unlike Aristotle, he did not believe that the state is a moral community where the moral good of its members are considered as its objective. Thus, he argues that the state should be based on justice and the people should rule for the good of the public which should be under the constraints of law.

- a) Both 1 and 2
- b) Both 1 and 3
- c) Both 2 and 3
- d) All 1, 2 and 3

40. St. Thomas Aquinas who is regarded as one of the great figures of medieval thought founded a tradition which came to be known as _____

- a) Aquinism
- b) Perlism
- c) Thomism
- d) Bub

41. Which among the following statement is correct?

1) The basis of Aquinas political theory can be found in his commentary on Aristotle's Politics in de masileprincipum (on the Rule of Democracy) while he was at the papal court in England (1259-68).

2) Following Aristotle, he held that the state is a natural and not a conventional institution and it is a perfect society (communities perfecta). He argued that it is natural and not conventional because human beings were social animals.

3) They needed to form a society to survive, prosper and for their cultural development. Gregarious animals do this by instinct but humans on the other hand do it by reason.

- a) Only 2
- b) Both 1 and 2
- c) Both 1 and 3
- d) Both 2 and 3

42. All power according to Aquinas comes from where?

- a) People
- b) State
- c) God
- d) Elites

43. Which among the following statement is correct?

1) The sovereign or government in the view of Aquinas is the representative of those people. The state therefore, is dependent on the church. Aquinas argued that each had a separate role and an end.

2) However, in Aquinas' view the Church is subordinate to the state, whereas the state on the other hand must not take into consideration of the Church since its end is not higher than that of the state and is the ultimate end of the citizen.

3) Aquinas likens the relationship of the church to the state to that of the soul and the body. Each has a separate role to play but ultimately the soul's purpose is loftier.

- a) Only 3
- b) Both 1 and 2
- c) Both 2 and 3
- d) All 1, 2 and 3

44. Which among the following statement is correct?

1) Machiavelli writings reveal that he received an excellent humanist education that was informed by the Renaissance values. He entered the service of the Republican Government in 1494, the year of expulsion of the Medici.

2) From 1498 to 1512 he was Secretary to the Chancery an important post which was concerned with diplomatic, military and administrative affairs.

3) In 1512, consequent upon the restoration of the Medici, Machiavelli lost his office and underwent a brief imprisonment after which he embarked on a literary career.

- a) Only 1
- b) Both 1 and 2
- c) Both 2 and 3
- d) All 1, 2 and 3

45. According to Machiavelli who by nature are purely selfish and they, in their lives, are always motivated by selfish desires?

- a) God
- b) Elites
- c) Men
- d) Labours

46. According to Machiavelli, which should aim to be feared by the people than be loved?

- a) Monarch
- b) Democracy
- c) Republic
- d) Oligarchy

47. Which among the following statement is Incorrect?

1) Machiavelli holds the view that men have endless desires and one of the most important desire is the love for private property. He makes materialistic individualism as the explanation of love of independence and self-government

2) He says that this motive of the people makes them desire for monarch and dislike Republic. Under Monarch government there are more chances for people to get material gain. This is not possible in a Republic because the statesman takes all the gains and profits himself.

3) He feels that men judge things by appearances and so the ruler should take advantage of this fact and act. For him men are weak and ignorant and are essentially vicious and become good only by necessity. He cautions the ruler never to trust his councillors but to use his own judgement.

- a) Only 1
- b) Only 2
- c) Both 1 and 2
- d) Both 1 and 3

48. In Greek political thought, who was viewed as the foundation of politics?

- a) Science
- b) Logic
- c) Law
- d) Ethics

49. Which among the following statement is correct?

1) Machiavelli insisted on separation between politics and ethics. According to him the ruler should be honest, righteous and true to his word, but in reality, nobody can have all these qualities and these qualities will not enable a ruler to rule over vicious people.

2) Machiavelli contend that 'ends justify the means' also he claims that a ruler's success will be judged by popular verdict, and that he will be excused for using dubious means if he is successful in the end. If political expediency requires the Prince to set aside traditional morality, he should not go ahead in the interest of successful politics.

- a) Only 1
- b) Only 2
- c) Both 1 and 2
- d) None

50. Which among the following statement is correct?

1) Like Plato, Aristotle, St. Thomas Aquinas and others Machiavelli also believed in the religious purpose of the State. He separates politics from morality not from religion and gives an autonomous status to politics. According to Machiavelli, it is practical policy for the prince to follow the principles of religion

2) The Prince and The Discourses on Livy. Both deal with the same subject-The causes of the rise and decline of States and the means of making them permanent. The Prince deals with monarchies and the Discourses mainly with the expansion of the Roman republic.

- a) Only 1
- b) Only 2
- c) Both 1 and 2
- d) None

51. Which among the following statement is correct?

1) Machiavelli's enunciation of statecraft is his most notable as well as controversial contribution. It is notable because it provides unique guidelines; it is controversial because it allows the ruler to use certain immoral practices for successful governance.

2) While Machiavelli advised the ruler to set aside moral bindings in order to achieve his end, he did not think that conventional morality was totally irrelevant to politics. He enunciates a double standard of morals, one for the ruler and another for his servants and citizens.

3) According to Machiavelli's Rulers performance will be judged by his success in fulfilling his responsibility. But his servants and citizens are not allowed to depart from the conventional morality, otherwise the purpose of the state itself will be defeated.

- a) Only 3
- b) Both 1 and 2
- c) Both 1 and 3
- d) All 1, 2 and 3

52. Machiavelli advice whom to provide for security of women in the state?

- a) Men
- b) God
- c) Prince
- d) Philosophers

53. Italy was fragmented into how many parts during Machiavelli period?

- a) Three

- b) Five
- c) Six
- d) Four

54. Who among the following was the sixteenth century English Philosopher who lived during the scientific revolution was the first to attempt a modern theory of society?

- a) Thomas Hobbes
- b) Desiderius Erasmus
- c) Michelangelo
- d) Montesquieu

55. Which among the following college did Thomas Hobbes graduated?

- a) Peterhouse College
- b) Pembroke College
- c) Magdalene College
- d) St Catherine's College

56. In the year 1629, Hobbes translated which book of Thucydides and published it?

- a) History of the Peloponnesian War
- b) The Landmark Thucydides
- c) How to Think About War
- d) Speeches

57. Which among the following work of Hobbes is his most mature and exciting work attempts to demonstrate the Galilean physics provides a model of human psychology which on turn lays the foundation for modern politics?

- a) De Cive
- b) Leviathan
- c) De Corpore
- d) The Correspondence

58. Which term is often used to denote a very pessimistic view of man as essentially, anti-social, selfish, brutish and power lusting?

- a) Hobbesian
- b) Proletarian
- c) Valetudinarian
- d) Callithumpian

59. Which among the following statement is correct?

1) In Hobbes' words human beings are driven by their passions and use their intellectual capacity simply as a means to determine what will bring them the greatest pleasure or the least pain.

2) Hobbes further adds that the object of man's desire is only to enjoy once and for one instant only, but not to assure forever the way of his future desire.

3) Hobbes is careful to also state that different people desire different forms of pleasure but there is one desire which is common in man – Power. Hobbes thus regards human nature as utterly self-interested and self-regarding.

- a) Both 1 and 2
- b) Both 1 and 3
- c) Both 2 and 3
- d) All 1, 2 and 3

60. Which among the following statement is correct?

1) Hobbes in his theory of the state of nature provides a corollary method of understanding human behaviour. In the state of nature Hobbes argues, that it a condition of absolute liberty and equality.

2) Absolute liberty since there would be no laws to constrain individuals and thus would have a right to everything; absolute equality because human beings have roughly equivalent physical and intellectual capabilities.

3) Hobbes argues when everyone has a right to everything and all have equal capabilities in exercising their rights, all are subject to attacks from all. The state of nature is thus a state of war where survival remains the ultimate motive for human beings to acquire power. It is thus by nature that human beings are by nature antisocial power seekers.

- a) Both 1 and 2
- b) Both 1 and 3
- c) Both 2 and 3
- d) All 1, 2 and 3

61. Which was the scientific theory of politics put forward by Hobbes Knowing the true nature of human beings?

a) Political contract

b) Natural contract

c) Social contract

d) Economical contract

62. Which is the result of a contract between human beings in which the scope and extent of the powers of the government are to be determined by an analysis of the terms of the contract by idea of the social contract?

a) State

b) Monarch

c) Democracy

d) Aristocracy

63. Which among the following statement is Incorrect?

1) The state is created by mutual agreement or the consent of its members. As a result, government is legitimate if it corresponds to what people have consented to. This is a very modern notion of the modern secular state which is contrary to medieval thought where the secular government exists by divine sanction

2) Such an idea was still employed by the Royalists who argued that the Republic ruled by divine right. The consent-contract flatly support this idea and, on the contrary, claimed that the government is legitimate only to the extent that people have consented to.

3) The importance of Hobbes theory of social contract is that he believes that it is strictly a logical and scientific analysis of the state. He argues that human beings would consent only to that which rationally accords to their needs and desires

a) Only 1

b) Only 2

c) Both 1 and 2

d) Both 2 and 3

64. According to Hobbes the relationship between whom was the absolute absence of power and the absolute unity of power?

a) Law and Sovereign

b) Master and Individual

c) Individual and Sovereign

d) Law and Ruler

65. Which among the following statement is correct?

1) Hobbes is consistent in his argument in the commonwealth the removal of all bases of power from the sovereign on the one hand and the concentration of it with the individual was essential.

2) The key to his political thinking is found in the absolute necessity to create an absolute authority. The sovereign could be one man or an assembly of men, although he preferred the sovereignty of one man.

a) Only 1

b) Only 2

c) Both 1 and 2

d) None

66. Which among the following statement is incorrect?

1) The importance of Hobbes lies not only on his political philosophy but also on his contributions towards the development of an anti- Machiavelli and thoroughly philosophical conception of politics.

2) It is in his work that the beginnings of understanding politics from a non-teleological point of view emerged. His political philosophy served as the basis for other political philosophers such as John Locke, Jean-Jacques Rousseau, who followed the tradition of examining politics from a modern scientific approach.

a) Only 1

b) Only 2

c) Both 1 and 2

d) None

67. Who among the following was the father of philosophical liberalism?

a) Jean-Jacques Rousseau

b) Immanuel Kant

c) David Hume

d) John Locke

68. When Locke was made the Commissioner for Appeals by William III?

- a) 1610
- b) 1639
- c) 1689
- d) 1652

69. Which among the following is not the work of John Locke?

- a) Letter Concerning Toleration
- b) Essay Concerning Human Understanding
- c) Two Treatises on Civil Government
- d) The Social Contract

70. Which among the following statement is correct?

1) Locke's comprehension of the human nature is reflected in his "Letter Concerning Toleration". Unlike Hobbes, Locke subscribe to a pessimistic view of human nature. He identifies reason as the factor which shapes a rational human being.

2) Lockean view also upholds the natural state of equality for individuals. To him, humans are entitled to natural liberty. It is qualified as an inherent privilege to be free from any superior element but to be subversive towards the "dictate of the nature".

3) He also reaches a consensus on the fact that individuals are prone to some degrees of discrepancies in terms of intelligence, strength and their skills. Nevertheless, his reliance on similarities among individuals were outweighing the differences.

- a) Only 3
- b) Both 1 and 3
- c) Both 2 and 3
- d) All 1, 2 and 3

71. Following whose line, Locke says, humans seek to strike a balance of pleasure over pain?

- a) Kant
- b) Austin
- c) Beccaria
- d) Bentham

72. Which among the following statement is correct?

1) The Locke contemplation on the state of nature can be found in his "Second Treatise". In contrast to the Hobbesian state of nature, Locke postulates a peaceful condition by virtue of the social instinct of humans. As dictated by the canons of natural law, his state of nature is based on perfect freedom.

2) In his own words, "state of nature is a state of peace, goodwill, mutual assistance and preservation". In short, Locke underscores the optimistic nature of human beings.

3) Natural law is considered to be the source of both rights and duties. Humans derive their rights from the domain of natural law and it expects them to respect the ordained rights on a mutual basis for safeguarding the same.

- a) Only 2
- b) Both 1 and 2
- c) Both 2 and 3
- d) All 1, 2 and 3

73. Locke goes to the extent of denoting which law as the moral law enacted by God, which is sensible through reason?

- a) Eternal law
- b) Divine law
- c) Natural law
- d) Human law

74. Locke identifies how many fundamental demerits which threatened the balance of state of nature?

- a) Three
- b) Five
- c) Seven
- d) Six

75. Which among the following statement is correct?

1) Social contract is configured as an instrument of admission to the civil society. The Lockean view proposes three contracts. The first one establishes the civil society, the second one calls for the constitution of government and third one for the maintenance of state as one.

2) Locke also recognises consent as the bedrock of the contract. To him, no individual can be admitted into this commonwealth without his/her own consent.

3) Locke speaks of two kinds of consent: 1) formal or active consent, which is irrevocable in nature and 2) implied or tacit consent, which sanctions the departure of the stakeholders from the 'trust' and initiate a new order.

- a) Only 2
- b) Both 1 and 2
- c) Both 2 and 3
- d) All 1, 2 and 3

76. Which among the following statement is incorrect?

1) Locke's contract is that individuals do not surrender their rights which they enjoyed in the state of nature. Submission of the rights would defeat the purpose of the contract itself as the state is being raised as the guarantor and protector of rights.

2) Therefore, the contract is synonymous to a "charter of liberty" than a license for subjugation. The Locke a vision on social pact do not authorises the option for revolution against a tyrannous system of governance.

3) On the question of the nature of authority, he outlines the notion of Absolute-sovereignty. Limited sovereignty is against his construct of civil society. Locke was also not hesitant to offer an alternative blueprint on the separation of powers.

- a) Only 2
- b) Only 3
- c) Both 2 and 3
- d) Both 1 and 2

77. Which among the following did not come under the Locke's separation of powers of Government?

- a) Judicial
- b) Legislature
- c) Executive

d) Federative

78. According to whom Locke's Two Treatises on Government "became the textbook of American Revolution"?

- a) Voltaire
- b) Parrington
- c) Diderot
- d) Rousseau

79. Which among the following statement is correct?

1) John Locke, being an individualist by conviction, he believed that humans are the makers of their own destiny. His works were a great source of impetus and inspiration for thinkers like Voltaire, Diderot and Rousseau, and even for the French Revolution.

2) Burke wrote rather a textbook for the cautious administrator than a guide for the liberal statesman. But Locke saw that the main problem of the state is the conquest of freedom and it was for its definition in terms of individual good that he above all strove".

- a) Only 1
- b) Only 2
- c) Both 1 and 2
- d) None

80. Who among the following was the most prominent philosophers in the modern political discourse, was born on 28 July, 1712 in Geneva?

- a) Jean-Jacques Rousseau
- b) Immanuel Kant
- c) David Hume
- d) Karl Marx

81. By whose help Rousseau was introduced to formal education in a monastery based in Turin and a seminary in Annecy?

- a) Madame Bovary
- b) Madame Helena Blavatsky
- c) Madame de Warrens
- d) Madame Tussauds

82. Which among the following statement is correct?

Line By Line Questions

1) Out of the repeated failures, she was forced to send him to Toulouse in 1730. After two year of wandering, he re-joined her in 1731 and lived under her bounty till 1740.

2) Influenced by her intellectual halo and her invaluable assistance, he joined as a teacher in the family of Monsieur de Malby. Nonetheless, he left the assignment and resorted to his journey as an aimless soul.

- a) Only 1
- b) Only 2
- c) Both 1 and 2
- d) None

83. When was Rousseau second trip to France happened?

- a) 1742
- b) 1744
- c) 1752
- d) 1749

84. In the year 1749, Rousseau received price for essay on which topic?

- a) Has the progress of sciences and arts contributed to corrupt or purify morals?
- b) Profession of faith of the Savoyard Vicar
- c) Discourse on the Inequality of politics and society
- d) The effect of Art and Moral effect contribution on the politics and state

85. Which among the following statement is Incorrect?

1) On his return to Geneva in 1754, Rousseau, a Catholic by himself, accepted Calvinistic denomination and reacquired the citizenship.

2) After his travel to Paris, he spent 8 years of his life at Montmorency as a ward of Madame d'Epinay. Rousseau's demise on 2 July, 1778, was received with a shock and was seen as a great loss to philosophy

- a) Only 1
- b) Only 2
- c) Both 1 and 2
- d) None

86. Which among the following is not the work of Rousseau?

- a) The New Heloise
- b) My Thoughts
- c) Emile
- d) The Social Contract

87. Which among the following statement is incorrect?

1) The idyllic character of the state of nature was short-lived. The emerging template of human complexities defined by economic advancement and social evolution facilitated only havoc. Humans were left with no alternative, but to constitute the civil state.

2) In the sixth chapter of the 'The New Heloise' Rousseau says, "I assume that men have not reached a point where primitive conditions can no longer subsist and the human race would not perish unless it changed its mode of existence".

3) The state of nature is thriving on an individual's pursuit of self-interest until a point wherein he/she realises that his/her self-preserving prowess against the insecurity posed by others is not strong enough.

- a) Only 2
- b) Only 3
- c) Both 1 and 2
- d) Both 2 and 3

88. Which among the following statement is correct?

1) Rousseau occupies a critical position in the realm of political philosophy. He is predominantly known for his contribution towards the "theory of social contract".

2) In the view of Rousseau, human progress and rational advancement accompanied by the revolution in the conduct of life and human thought brought a new layer of evils in its wagon.

- a) Only 1
- b) Only 2
- c) Both 1 and 2
- d) None

89. Who among the following quoted "Fear and I were born twins"?

- a) Thomas Hobbes
- b) John Locke
- c) Jean-Jacques Rousseau
- d) Niccolo Machiavelli

90. Which among the following statement is correct?

1) Like Hobbes, Rousseau's proposition of state of nature was not an epitome of perfect liberty, perfect equality and perfect innocence. He also identifies it with a sophisticatedly peaceful, pleasant and idyllic environment.

2) The man in his state of nature lived in solitude characterized by a care-free living with no desires. Despite the inconsistency in terms of a settled life, and inarticulate speech, the life was shaped by contentment, independence, self-sufficiency and prosperity.

3) Absence of wickedness paved the way for idyllic happiness. As he says, "supreme bliss" was the norm of the time. In due course, the status quo was threatened by changes in terms of sophistication of human life.

- a) Only 2
- b) Both 1 and 2
- c) Both 1 and 3
- d) Both 2 and 3

91. According to Rousseau which concept created a new cleavage at the social sphere – rich and poor?

- a) Monarch
- b) Democracy
- c) Private Ownership
- d) Oligarchy

92. As a social contractalist by conviction, Rousseau sought to unearth the origin of state as an expression of what?

- a) Moderate Will
- b) State Will
- c) Public Will
- d) General Will

93. Which among the following statement is incorrect?

1) Rousseau opines that there are two premises on which a savage-acts. Firstly, a human is driven by the need of self-preservation and out of the interest of his/her own welfare. Secondly the fear of death. He finds the genesis of rationality and reason in this emotional consciousness.

2) Rousseau is of the view of that the humans by nature are capable of thinking. Civil society is viewed as convertibility to nature and it is apparently an outcome of the march of human reason. He insists on the slogan of "sustaining to nature".

3) His demand for the retrospection to the nature does not tantamount to a prescription for the collapse of the newly woven social fabric, but the rule of nature. Such a call necessarily unveils Rousseau's revelation that it is the philosophy and reason that allured the human life to entropy.

- a) Only 1
- b) Only 2
- c) Both 2 and 3
- d) Both 1 and 3

94. Which among the following statement is correct?

1) Rousseau's equation for the civil state can be summed as follows: "Each of us puts his person and all his power under the supreme direction of the general will and in one corporate capacity, we receive each number as an indivisible part of the whole".

2) Rousseau holds that state is just an amalgamation of individuals and a new body with an inherent identity, personality and life of its own. Above all, the state did not possess a will of its own, what he terms as volente general or general will. Any separate or particular will shall be considered to be subordinate to it.

3) Unlike Hobbes and Locke, Rousseau professes a total surrender of the individual to the sovereign community in pursuit of attaining equality. His idea of individual delegation of all the rights to the body-politic fosters reconciliation between liberty and authority.

- a) Both 1 and 2
- b) Both 1 and 3
- c) Both 2 and 3
- d) All 1, 2 and 3

95. Who among the following quoted "Government has no other end, but the preservation of property"?

- a) Aristotle
- b) John Locke
- c) Jean-Jacques Rousseau
- d) Niccolo Machiavelli

96. Which among the following statement is correct?

1) General will or the community is identical to the state. People submit their powers and personality under the command of the general will. The individual's wills are outweighed by the general will. Besides, sovereignty rests in the body-politic as a whole and it coincides with nothing, but the general will.

2) He emphasises the transferability of power. The general will is not equivalent to the will of all since the former considers the common interest whereas the latter attaches private interest into its fold.

3) There are three premises that determine the general will. First, it seeks general good, which refers to the objective of will. Secondly, it must come from all and apply to all, which proposes its origin. Thirdly, it should not be compulsion; people should come forward to embrace general will.

- a) Both 1 and 2
- b) Both 1 and 3
- c) Both 2 and 3
- d) All 1, 2 and 3

97. Who opined about Rousseau's 'Social Contract' to be "still far by the best of all textbooks of political philosophy"?

- a) Harold Laski
- b) R. H. Tawney

- c) G. D. H. Cole
- d) Beatrice Web

98. Where John Stuart Mill was born on 20 May 1806 to Harriet Barrow and James Mill?

- a) London
- b) France
- c) Dutch
- d) America

99. Which among the following is not the work of John Stuart Mill?

- a) A System of Logic
- b) Principles of Political Economy
- c) The Wealth of Nation
- d) On Liberty

100. Which among the following book brought Mill enduring fame, and predicted that among all his works, this was destined to survive the longest and is has?

- a) On Liberty
- b) The Subjection of Women
- c) A System of Logic
- d) Principles of Political Economy

101. Which among the following statement is correct?

1) Mill held that, the dominance of the majority carried no risks that from a monarch that had the capacity to place restrictions over the freedoms of individuals, which could not be legislatively enacted. Informal mechanisms of social pressure and expectation could in democratic societies could be all-controlling

2) Mill expressed that such powers could have the capacity of stifling conformism in thought, character and action. In was in this context that On Liberty was written. The aims of this work are written in the first chapter which asserts one simple principle.

3) This principle states that "the sole end for which mankind are warranted, individually or collectively, in interfering with the liberty of action of any of their number, is self-protection" Thus, the practical philosophy of this argument by Mill is primarily utilitarian

- a) Only 3
- b) Both 1 and 2
- c) Both 2 and 3
- d) All 1, 2 and 3

102. Who among the following quoted "Man is born free, and everywhere he is in chains. One man thinks himself the master of others, but remains more of a slave than they are"?

- a) John Start Mill
- b) Karl Marx
- c) Jean-Jacques Rousseau
- d) Niccolo Machiavelli

103. Who said "Human nature is not a machine to be built after a model, and set to do exactly the work prescribed for it, but a tree, which requires growing and developing itself on all sides, according to the tendency of the inward forces which make it a living thing"?

- a) John Start Mill
- b) Karl Marx
- c) Jean-Jacques Rousseau
- d) Niccolo Machiavelli

104. Mill encourages which model of self-development?

- a) Rome
- b) Greek
- c) Catholic
- d) Indian

105. Which among the following statement is correct?

- 1) Mill's insistence throughout On Liberty, sought to preserve the individual's freedom against the possibility of legislative or state coercion and also from the deceptive forms of social coercion.
- 2) Mill was a convinced democrat; however, this work reveals his disappointment, doubts, and difficulties about self-government. His view is paradoxical in nature where he views that the majority ought to rule but minority rule was probably right.
- 3) Mill in this work expresses the dangers posed by the tyranny of the majority undertook to provide the criterion for good government. He concluded that ideally the best form of government was one that was representative where the sovereignty is vested in the entire aggregate of the community.

- a) Both 1 and 2
- b) Both 1 and 3
- c) Both 2 and 3
- d) All 1, 2 and 3

106. Who among the following said "The history of all hitherto existing society is the history of class struggle"?

- a) David Ricardo
- b) Karl Marx
- c) Jean-Jacques Rousseau
- d) Niccolo Machiavelli

107. Which among the following is not the work of Karl Marx?

- a) Communist Manifesto
- b) Materialistic Concept of History
- c) Das Capital
- d) On the Principles of Political Economy and Taxation

108. Which among the following statement is correct?

- 1) Second half of the 18th century and 19th century witnessed the growth of Socialism in Europe. This period was also known as dual revolution era wherein politically France witnessed the Revolution of 1772, which overthrew absolute Democracy and Anarchy was proclaimed with liberty, equality and fraternity declared the right of every Frenchmen
- 2) Second important revolution during this period that had a long-lasting impact on Europe was the Industrial Revolution. These two events had a major impact on Marx's work.

- a) Only 1
- b) Only 2
- c) Both 1 and 2
- d) None

109. Which work of Karl Marx is known as "Bible of the working class"?

Line By Line Questions

- a) Communist Manifesto
 - b) Materialistic Concept of History
 - c) Das Capital
 - d) Economic and Philosophic Manuscript 1844
110. The second and third volumes of Da Capital, unfinished by Marx, were edited by whom?
- a) Friedrich Engels
 - b) Adam Smith
 - c) Max Weber
 - d) Leon Trotsky
111. When Communist manifesto was published by Karl Marx and Friedrich Engels?
- a) 1888
 - b) 1848
 - c) 1827
 - d) 1832
112. Which among the following statement is correct?
- 1) The Communist Manifesto goes on to argue that the nature of that class struggle varies according to the nature of production. Hence in feudal societies, where the main form of production was agriculture, the class struggle was between those who owned the land and those who worked on it
 - 2) In a modern industry, the struggle is between the proletariat (factory or business owners) and the bourgeoisie (workers in the factory). In reality the society as a whole is more and more splitting up into three great hostile camps, into two great classes directly facing each other proletariat and bourgeoisie.
- a) Only 1
 - b) Only 2
 - c) Both 1 and 2
 - d) None
113. Marx in this work also emphasises that the communist should aim to replace which property with public control of all properties?
- a) Government property
 - b) Private property
 - c) Monastery property

- d) Elites property
114. Which among the following statement is incorrect?
- 1) Marx and Engels look at every basic sections of society as materials and change in society takes place only through "the struggle of opposites". Materialism principally dealt with social world.
 - 2) The material world has always been in constant motion, contradictions and change. Marx believes that friction caused by constant motion in the society leads to contradictions within the society, which eventually leads to change in the society.
- a) Only 1
 - b) Only 2
 - c) Both 1 and 2
 - d) None
115. Theory of Surplus Value, comes from which work of Karl Marx?
- a) Communist Manifesto
 - b) Materialistic Concept of History
 - c) Das Capital
 - d) Economic and Philosophic Manuscript 1844
116. Which among the following statement is correct?
- 1) The Capitalists gets surplus value for the extra labour that has been put in by the labourer. Surplus value is produced no matter how long the working day is: even if the factory only ran for an hour the capitalist would still extract his quota of surplus labour and therefore surplus value.
 - 2) The capitalist pays his workers less than the value their labour, and in most occasions usually only enough to maintain the worker at a subsistence level.
- a) Only 1
 - b) Only 2
 - c) Both 1 and 2
 - d) None
117. Who among the following quoted that "Law is nothing other than a certain ordinance of reason for the common good, promulgated by the person who has the care of the community”?

Line By Line Questions

- a) Thomas Aquinas
- b) Friedrich Engels
- c) Niccolo Machiavelli
- d) Aristotle

118. Which among the following statement is correct?

1) Class consciousness and struggle are not related to the social relations of production. Marx does not look at class as a person who holds particular social status, but as a factor of ideology. The term class relates to ownership based on property.

2) Marx's work on the "Class Struggle of France", in the years 1848 – 1850 assesses the arguments on the class struggle and the need for revolution. Marx bases his idea of class conflict from the French Revolution of 1848

3) Having come to power with the support of the proletariat during the February revolution, the bourgeoisie used the election process to claim legitimacy of their rule. The bourgeoisie class instead of emancipating the working class of all bondages increasingly alienated them

- a) Both 1 and 2
- b) Both 1 and 3
- c) Both 2 and 3
- d) All 1, 2 and 3

119. During the French revolution both bourgeoisie and proletariat fought together against whom?

- a) Democracy
- b) Communist
- c) Aristocracy
- d) Socialist

120. Which among the following statement is correct?

1) Dictatorship of the Proletariat is a phrase used by Karl Marx to refer to the assumption of state power by the working class. For Marx, it is a transitional period of permanent revolution between the overthrow of bourgeois political rule and a classless society.

2) When the first group of the workers class (proletariat) assert themselves over the traditional ruling class (bourgeoisie) capitalist forms of production is abolished and the socialist forms of production takes the lead.

3) Establishment of socialist forms of production results in the disappearance of class groups within the society eventually bringing about Dictatorship of the Bourgeoisie. Of all Marx's contribution to political thought, probably the "dictatorship of the bourgeoisie" has had the most profound implication for actual governance.

- a) Only 2
- b) Both 1 and 2
- c) Both 1 and 3
- d) Both 2 and 3

121. By whom taking control, the society will become classless according to Karl Marx?

- a) Proletariat
- b) Bourgeoisie
- c) Elites
- d) All the above

122. Who among the following leader was not influenced by writing of Marx?

- a) Mao
- b) Stalin
- c) Napoleon
- d) Lenin

123. A state in which governing power is held by the nobility is known as ____

- a) Aristocracy
- b) Republic
- c) Monarchy
- d) Timocracy

124. A small group of people having control of a country or organization is known as ____

- a) Republic
- b) Monarchy
- c) Oligarchy

Line By Line Questions

d) Timocracy

125. A form of government in which possession of property is required in order to hold office is Known as _____

a) Republic

b) Monarchy

c) Democracy

d) Timocracy

126. According to whom the right method to study political Science was historical and says that human desires and passions remain the same always?

a) Aquinas

b) Hobbes

c) Machiavelli

d) Plato

127. Who among the following was born in Florence, the centre of Italian culture where influence of Italian culture as the third child of Bartolomea di Stefano Nelli?

a) Thomas Hobbes

b) Niccolo Machiavelli

c) John Locke

d) Jean-Jacques Rousseau

128. Which among the following was the famous monograph written by Machiavelli?

a) The Prince

b) The Art of War

c) The Statesman

d) De Corpore